BAPTISM OF THE LORD

The Catechism of the Catholic Church (paragraph 536) teaches,

The baptism of Jesus is on his part the acceptance and inauguration of his mission as God's suffering Servant.

He allows himself to be numbered among sinners; he is already "the Lamb of God, who takes away the sin of the world". Already he is anticipating the "baptism" of his bloody death. Already he is coming to "fulfill all righteousness", that is, he is submitting himself entirely to his Father's will: out of love he consents to this baptism of death for the remission of our sins. The Father's voice responds to the Son's acceptance, proclaiming his entire delight in his Son. The Spirit whom Jesus possessed in fullness from his conception comes to "rest on him." Jesus will be the source of the Spirit for all mankind. At his baptism "the heavens were opened" - the heavens that Adam's sin had closed - and the waters were sanctified by the descent of Jesus and the Spirit, a prelude to the new creation.

Week of Prayer for Christian Unity 2022 January 18 to 25, 2022

Each year a host country prepares resources for the Vatican and World Council of Churches. The Middle East Council of Churches has provided the theme for 2022, "We saw the star in the East, and we came to worship him" (Mt. 2.2).

The Office for Promoting Christian Unity and Religious Relations with Judaism, along with the Greater Toronto Area Council of Christian Churches has jointly organized a special prayer service to celebrate the Week of Prayer for Christian Unity.

Join Cardinal Collins and a wide representation of Christian leaders to pray for the restoration of the full visible unity willed by Jesus Christ for the Church. An ecumenical prayer service will be held at Holy Trinity Armenian Apostolic Orthodox Church at 920 Progress Avenue, Scarborough, on Sunday, January 23, 2022 at 4 p.m. All are welcome to attend in person or watch the livestream on Facebook:

St. Marguerite Bourgeoys - Memorial January 13th

Marguerite Bourgeoys was born in Troyes, Champagne, France, in 1620. In 1653, at the request for a teacher by Governor Paul de Chomedey de Maisonneuve, she set out on a ship for Ville-Marie (Montreal). In 1658 she began day classes and then a boarding school for the daughters of colonists as well as girls from the Iroquois First Nation. She formed a religious community for young women (today the Congregation of Notre Dame). She returned to France in 1659 and 1671 to recruit companions. In 1676, Bishop Laval recognized her community as a secular institute and she began to admit the first Canadian women, including two Iroquois. St. Marguerite and her companions taught catechism and the basics of literature, as well as the household arts.

Marguerite Bourgeoys died on January 12, 1700, and was acclaimed as the "Mother of the Colony". She was canonized on October 31, 1982, by St. John Paul II as Canada's first woman saint.
