Fifth Sunday of Easter (Year C)

When Judas had left them, Jesus said, "Now is the Son of Man glorified, and God is glorified in him." John 13:31

It is essential to know the end of the story. Jesus knew the end when He spoke these words to the Apostles at the Last Supper right after Judas left to go and betray Him. It's important to put this situation within the context that Jesus understood it. From a purely human point of view, one of Jesus' closest friends was about to betray Him for money. For most of us this would have been devastating and the cause for anger and hurt. But because Jesus knew the end of the story, He was able to see Judas' betrayal as the means to His glorification, not His defeat. He turned His eyes toward Heaven and all that He would accomplish through His suffering rather than look at the immediate pain He would soon endure.

This is a powerful lesson for us all. First, it's essential that we look at Jesus' glorification through His betrayal, suffering and death. But we must also strive to see the potential that our own sufferings have when united to the Savior of the World.

How do you react when another sins against you? How would you have reacted to Judas betraying your love? This is a very difficult question to face in honesty and it is even harder to live the response that Jesus lived. The truth is that every time we are mistreated by another, we are given an opportunity to glorify God and further the Kingdom of Heaven by forgiving, uniting our suffering with Christ's, and offering mercy. This is much easier to speak about than to live.

Reflect, today, upon this scene of the Gospel. Gaze upon Judas leaving the Last Supper and going out into the night to betray our Lord. But look at it in the way Jesus saw it. Look at it with the understanding that this was the means chosen by the Father to bring salvation to the world. Reflect, also, upon every opportunity that you are given to do as Jesus did. Try to be concrete and specific and see any and every suffering you endure as a glorious opportunity to dispense the mercy of God. Though this may be difficult at first, it is this act of love that will give great glory to the Father in Heaven!

My dear Lord, You were betrayed by the kiss of one of Your closest friends. But in Your perfect wisdom, You saw this betrayal as the perfect opportunity to glorify the Father through Your mercy and forgiveness. Lord, I also have betrayed You countless times. For that reason I am sorry. But I thank You for loving me and forgiving me with Your Heart of perfect mercy. Help me to receive that mercy and to offer it to others who have sinned against me. Jesus, I trust in You.

POPE'S PASTORAL WORKS COLLECTION
MAY 22/23

The Pope's Pastoral Works collection was established by the bishops of Canada in 1970. These funds are passed onto the Holy Father so the Church can provide an immediate humanitarian response in countries stricken by war, famine, and natural disasters. The Pope's Pastoral Works displays Christ's love and compassion for people in desperate need. You will find an envelope in your box for next weekend to support this charity. Thank you for your generosity.

Please destroy all old donation envelopes from previous years. If you do not have a box of envelopes with the dates for 2022, please pick up a new box by request.

The new commandment of love is required of everyone who follows the risen Lord. How do you fulfill the commandment? If God is calling you, to be a priest, religious or deacon, contact Fr. Matt McCarthy, Director of Vocations, Archdiocese of Toronto at 416-968-0997.

An Ontario Election Debate
from a Catholic Perspective

On Wednesday, May 18th starting at 7:30 p.m., the Archdiocese of Toronto will host an Ontario Election Debate from a Catholic Perspective, featuring representatives from the major political parties. The debate will be livestreamed on the Archdiocese's Facebook page and YouTube channel, and it will be broadcasted live on Salt+Light TV. Peter Stockland, publisher of The Catholic Register, will be the moderator and he will ask the candidates how they will respond to the concerns of Ontario's Catholics. The evening will include Cardinal Collins sharing his thoughts on the election. You can also find a number of resources at www.archtoronto.org/election.

Please remember to vote in the provincial election on June 2nd.

OFFICE OF CATHOLIC YOUTH

The Office of Catholic Youth (OCY) in the Archdiocese of Toronto is seeking passionate and dedicated young adults to work closely with either University / College Chaplaincies or to work with regional schools, teachers, students, and local parishes of the Archdiocese of Toronto. The successful applicants will be trained by members of the OCY and HopeStone Catholic Formation to facilitate retreats, speak in small and large groups, learn, and grow both professionally and spiritually, connect with schools, parishes and at other special events, in person or online, dependent on covid-related protocols. The applicant will report to the Director of OCY (or his delegate) and will be required to raise his or her salary for the duration of the 15-month contract, for which training will be provided. The contract begins on June 1, 2022 and ends on August 31, 2023 and is renewable.
