WORLD DAY FOR CONSECRATED LIFE - FEBRUARY 2

Each year, the Church commemorates the World Day for Consecrated Life (established by Saint John Paul II in 1997) by pausing and thanking the Lord for the wonderful vocation to Consecrated life, by fostering a greater awareness of and deeper appreciation for all those women and men who are called by Jesus Christ to follow him by living a life of particular consecration to God, and by celebrating the good work that the Lord continues to accomplish through the communities and its vowed members.

The annual World Day for Consecrated Life takes place this year on the Feast of the Presentation of the Lord, February 2, with many diocesan or parish-based celebrations taking place on the weekend of February 3/4, 2024. All those who have been called to the vocation of Consecrated life are invited to join the Most Rev. Francis Leo, Archbishop of Toronto, for a special celebration of the Holy Eucharist on Saturday, February 3, 2024, at 10:30 am, at St. Michael's Cathedral Basilica, 65 Bond Street, Toronto.

The Mass will also be livestreamed through the following link: stmichaelscathedral.com/live.

"Let us raise to the Lord a hymn of thanksgiving and praise for consecrated life itself. If it did not exist, how much poorer the world would be!" (Pope Benedict XVI)
