WORLD DAY OF MIGRANTS AND REFUGEES
OCTOBER 4/5

The theme chosen this year - "Migrants, Missionaries of Hope" - places migrants not only at the centre of pastoral concern but also recognizes their spiritual witness. Pope Leo comments, "Migrants and refugees remind the Church of her pilgrim dimension, perpetually journeying towards her final homeland, sustained by a hope that is a theological virtue. Each time the Church gives in to the temptation of "sedentarization" and ceases to be a civitas peregrine, God's people journeying towards the heavenly homeland (cf. Augustine, De Civitate Dei, Books XIV-XVI), she ceases to be "in the world" and becomes "of the world" (cf. Jn 15:19)" (Pope Leo XIV, Message: World Day of Migrants and Refugees, 25 July 2025). Migrants and refugees are often seen only through the lens of suffering and loss, but this year's theme transforms the narrative reminding everyone that they are not passive recipients of charity but active protagonists of the Church's mission. In their journeys, they embody the perseverance of Abraham who "set out not knowing where he was going" (Heb 11:8), trusting only in God's promise.

(Excerpt from Message for World Day of Migrants & Refugees - Cardinal Leo)
