THANK YOU FR. JOHN

This weekend will be Fr. John's last weekend with us at St. Leonard's. For the last 12 years he has fed us with the Eucharist, cared for his flock, and been a true Shepherd to us and he will be greatly missed.

Our prayers, thanks, and good wishes go with him as he begins his new ministry as Pastor of St. Patrick's Parish in Mississauga.

Eleventh Sunday in Ordinary Time

"At the sight of the crowds, his heart was moved with pity for them because they were troubled and abandoned, like sheep without a shepherd." Matthew 9:36

As Jesus went "to all the towns and villages, teaching in their synagogues, proclaiming the gospel of the kingdom, and curing every disease and illness" (Matthew 9:35), He was moved with deep compassion for the crowds. The Greek verb splagchnizomai is often translated as "moved with pity" or "moved with compassion." It appears twelve times in the Gospels—eight times describing Jesus' own compassion and four times illustrating divine mercy in parables or related contexts (the Good Samaritan, the Prodigal Son, the Unforgiving Servant, and the plea of a father for his demon-possessed son). This verb conveys not just an emotional response but a profound stirring of His entire being, compelling Him to act with divine mercy—engaging His mind, will, body, and emotions.

That same profound mercy continues to flow from the Sacred Heart today. In Heaven, Christ's human heart remains inseparably united to His divinity, pouring forth the love of the Father and the Holy Spirit upon the world. His compassion is made present to us through His Church, especially in the Sacraments and in the lives of saintly men and women. This same compassion must become the driving force behind all we do for the Kingdom. We are called to be His living instruments of mercy, reflecting His Sacred Heart in our actions, words, and love for others—so that each of us might be reassured of God's unfailing love.

PASTORAL VISITORS MEETING

There will be a meeting on Thursday, June 18th at 7:30 p.m. in the Parish Hall for all current Pastoral Visitors and for those interested in serving. Pastoral Visitors make scheduled visits to people at home, the nursing home, retirement home, or in the hospital. They are commissioned Extraordinary Ministers of Communion who receive or have received training and are mandated by the Pastor. Volunteer screening and background check are required. If you have a heart to serve the sick or elderly, join us to find out more.

PLEASE NOTE: The Moms & Tots group will not be meeting this Monday. The next meeting will be on Monday, June 22.

MONTH OF THE SACRED HEART

In the Gospels, we often see how Jesus responds to people with a sensitive heart that reveals itself in a remarkable attentiveness to their suffering. The evangelists repeatedly describe him as being “moved with compassion”. He notices the hungry crowd before they ask for food (Mt 14:14–16); he stops for the blind man others try to silence (Mk 10:46–52), and he restores dignity to those whom society has forgotten (Lk 7:13). These moments reveal something profound: the heart of Christ is never distant from human need. It is a heart that sees, listens, and responds (Heb 4:15). And as the Church pondered these scenes - above all in the act of redemption when the side of Christ Crucified was opened - we too learn to speak ever more clearly of the love revealed in his Heart.
